

FORMALLY LAUNCH "BOB'S" CAMPAIGN

Progressives At Milwaukee Endorse La Follette For Presidency

The campaign for the nomination of Senator Robert M. La Follette as Republican candidate for president was formally launched in Wisconsin at a banquet of the Wisconsin Progressive league in the Republican house last night, attended by about 250 Republicans of the city and various parts of the state.

Gov. Francis E. McGovern presided, George L. Record, New Jersey, and Prof. Charles E. Merriam, Chicago, made the principal addresses. State Senator John J. Blaine, Boscobel, who was elected president of the league, offered a resolution, which was adopted, endorsing the candidacy of Senator La Follette.

All speakers were loud in their praises of the Senior Senator and contrasted his rough road of early days with the great hold he has upon the people now. They illustrated many of the laws passed in Wisconsin under the leadership of the senator to prove that in every sense he is a constructive statesman for the people.

All speakers dwelt upon the fact there is progressive work to do and a progressive must be in the president's chair to do it.

The directors of the Wisconsin Progressive Republican league consisting of A. W. Sanborn, A. M. Stondall, Wm. Mauehe, Thos. Mahon, John Hicks, Frank Higgins F. A. Lovell, Otto Bässhard and John Kleczka held a long and interesting executive session Monday evening.

The prospects were never so bright for the progressive cause as now.

CONGREGATIONAL CONCERT

Elaborate Program Has Been Arranged For Sunday Evening

Another concert of sacred music will be given at the Congregational church next Sunday evening, Dec. 10 beginning at 7:30. ### JOHN BYRNES HURT

Mr. and Mrs. John Byrnes returned Monday to Mercer following a week's visit with relatives.
While in the employ of the Great Northern railway at Superior two weeks ago Mr. Byrnes had the misfortune to hurt his head severely and the injury has since compelled him to remain off duty. He was standing on the top of a box car as the train was passing over a bridge and was struck by an over head projection.

Mrs. R. Raymond of Beasemer is visiting for a few days at the home of her sister, Mrs. H. E. Osborne.

GOVERNOR ENDORSES CAMPAIGN

Assures Anti-Tuberculosis Association Of His Support

Urging Wisconsin to hold its rank as first of all the states in anti-tuberculosis work, and giving his hearty endorsement of the Red Cross seal sale of the Wisconsin Anti-Tuberculosis association, by which this work is maintained, Gov. Francis E. McGovern has written the association as follows:

"You represent a work that has already resulted in untold benefit to our people. To your association is due much of the growing interest and intelligence manifested by the public in the prevention and treatment of the white plague, that terrible scourge of modern life. It would amount to a calamity to permit your efforts to be crippled through the failure of that support heretofore given.

"I cordially recommend your association to the confidence and liberal support of our philanthropic citizens throughout the state. Let Wisconsin still maintain first rank in this good cause as she has done in the past."

The state of Illinois is this year after the record held for the past two years by Wisconsin, according to a communication recently issued by Secretary James A. Minnick of the Illinois State Association for the Prevention of Tuberculosis.

HUNTING SEASON IS SUCCESSFUL

Few Violations and Few Accidents Says Game Warden Oberholtzer

Jas. Oberholtzer of Eagle River, who has supervision over the deputy game wardens in this state from Marinette to Ashland, was in the city Saturday and gave out the statement that the hunting season just ended has from every point of view been the most successful in the history of northern Wisconsin.

"There were fewer accidents and fewer violations of the game laws than at any time since I have been a game warden," said Mr. Oberholtzer. "Although hunters invaded the woods in vast numbers and an unusually large amount of deer were slain the list of accidents was very small compared to that of former years. People seemed to exercise more care in shooting and in my district there was only one fatality due directly to one hunter mistaking another for a deer. The majority of those injured were hurt through their own carelessness in handling rifles and but few were shot by other hunters. When the season first opened several wardens including myself, made a tour of all the hunting camps in this part of the state and warned the occupants in a friendly way against carelessness. The young hunters are largely to blame for the accidents as they display little judgment and shoot at about everything that moves.

"In regard to violations I believe that there were only two arrests made in my territory for illegal killing of deer. The hunters this year seemed to work with the wardens in an effort to suppress lawlessness."

In referring to the number of deer killed Mr. Oberholtzer stated that in his opinion there were as many of the animals slaughtered this year as in any season when the law permitted each license holder to two deer. Mr. Oberholtzer added that deer are very plentiful in northern Wisconsin regardless of stories to the contrary.

REMEMBER HIS BIRTHDAY

N. P. Hanson was surprised Tuesday evening by a number of his neighbors and friends in honor of his 39th birthday. Supper was served and cards were played and all had a very pleasant time. Mr. Hanson was presented with many nice presents, and all wished him many more happy returns of the day.

RESTS ON TRACK AND MEETS DEATH

Northwestern Train Kills A Drunken Woodsman Near Deerbrook

Train number 116, the south bound Northwestern passenger which arrives in this city at 10:26 A. M., struck and instantly killed Wenzel Miller, a woodsman aged 30 years, near Deerbrook, Monday forenoon.

The man was reclining on the track in a drunken stupor and was unable to get out of the path of the train. Engineer Chas. Abrams did not see the unfortunate until it was too late to stop and the train passed over his body. The corpse was terribly mangled.

Muller was a Bohemian and was employed in a logging camp near Enterprise. He had only been in this country since the 4th of November and from New York City went directly to Enterprise.

Sunday Muller and another woodsman walked from the Camp to Kempster for the purpose of boarding a train for Antigo, but an over indulgence in liquor caused him to miss the train and Monday morning started to walk the distance. In his intoxicated condition he apparently found it difficult traveling and laid down on the track to rest.

A small sum of money and a few papers of no value were found on the remains. Muller, it is reported, is survived by a wife and three children in the old country.

LEBRUN COMPANY

Grand Opera Troupe Appears Here On December 30

Arrangements have been made finally for a date at which the LeBrun Grand Opera Concert Co. will appear, in order to make up the date canceled on account of the illness of a member of the company. The date for Rhinelander is Saturday evening, Dec. 30. It has been impossible to secure an earlier date owing to the fact that the company's time was sold so far ahead. This is the star number of the course and it is now secured for our patrons. On account of the change of date the Entertainment Association will make a rebate of fifty cents to each season ticket holder who is unable to use his ticket for the LeBrun Concert, if the ticket is deposited with the Sec. R. J. LaSelle, not later than December 27, and until January 1st. The reserve seat holdings made previously for the LeBrun will be canceled, and a new drawing for seats made beginning Thursday, Dec. 28 at 8 A. M.

This arrangement of a date for the LeBrun Company leaves the Four Artists Company to open the course Dec. 11. Reservations may be made for this attraction beginning Saturday Dec. 9 at 8 A. M.

VICTIM OF WHITE PLAGUE

John Hogan, aged 31 years, died Thursday last in this city after a long illness with tuberculosis.
Mr. Hogan was a brother of Mrs. Clarence Dimick and Mrs. John Gibson of this city and had many friends here. The funeral was conducted from the Gibson home Saturday afternoon. Rev. Clemens of the M. E. church officiated.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

A birthday surprise party was given on Peter Phillips last evening. Cards were played and refreshments served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. L. Emmerling, Mr. and Mrs. P. Cain, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. H. Fritch, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Remo, Mr. and Mrs. A. Dufraine, Mr. and Mrs. F. Gropengels, and M. Johnson.

JUDGE REID RETAINS HONOR

Judge A. H. Reid of this circuit has been reelected president of the Wisconsin branch of the American Institute of Criminal Law and Criminology.

IS SOO ENGINE HOODOO?

Two Deaths Have Occurred In The Cab of 2902

The sudden deaths of an engineer and fireman on Engine No. 2902, the numbers of which added together make the sum of thirteen, of the Soo Line, have caused railroad men to wonder whether the steel monster, which pulls the passenger train between Fond du Lac and Chicago every morning, is hoodooed.

Monday afternoon of last week, Fireman O. Putz died suddenly on 2902 shortly after the train had left the union depot in Chicago. He fell from his seat to the floor of the engine and expired instantly.

On Nov. 12, 1910, Engineer George D. Mack, in charge of Train No. 3, northbound, also died suddenly from heart disease in the cab of Engine No. 2902, while his train was near Wheaton, Ill. Like Mr. Putz, Engineer Mack slipped from his seat and dropped dead in the cab. The fireman was then forced to run the train to Waukesha, where an engineer was secured to complete the run to Fond du Lac.

IS ARRESTED ON FORGERY CHARGE

Emil Gilmore Cashes Worthless Order On Brown Bros' Lumber Co.

On the charge of forgery, Emil Gilmore, a young farmer who resides near this city, was arrested Saturday by Sheriff Crofoot and placed in the county jail.

Gilmore, who is about twenty-four years old and married, is alleged to have forged two cash orders on the Brown Brothers Lumber company, signing the name of A. W. Brown. One check was for $19.50 and the other for $18.00. He succeeded in cashing the largest order at the saloon of August Fliss on Rives st. and Gary and Danielson accepted the one for $18.00. Gilmore passed the worthless paper Friday and as soon as the forgery was discovered a warrant was issued for his arrest. He was located by the sheriff near his home Saturday afternoon.

Before Judge Walker in municipal court the young man admitted his guilt and expressed a desire to go before Judge Reid at Wausau, plead guilty and receive sentence. He will be taken before the court this week. The penalty for forgery is from one to seven years imprisonment in the state penitentiary.

Judge Walker stated yesterday that in his opinion Gilmore is not entirely right mentally and when he committed the crime had little realization of its enormity. The prisoner's care free attitude in municipal court Monday would warrant this belief.

NEW SCANDINAVIAN SOCIETY

The Haabet Is Organized In This City Last Night

A new Scandinavian Society known as the Haabet was organized in this city Wednesday night. The organization was launched with nineteen members and it is expected that the number will be more than doubled at the next meeting.

The aim of the society is to further good and work against evil in the city. Officers are as follows:
President—Rev. Smarteno.
Vice-Pres.—Thos. Almie.
Secretary—Gust. Schlibred.
Treasurer—Robt. Peterson.

Frank and Jennie Campbell in their musical act at the Majestic this week are pleasing the crowds. These clever people produce sweet music on various kinds of bells and their performance is a novelty among vaudeville features.

CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. W. E. BROWN

Mrs. B. R. Lewis Reads Inter- esting Paper On Opera, Lu- cia Di Lammermoor

The Woman's Club was entertained at the home of Mrs. W. E. Brown, Tuesday, Dec. 5, instead of at the library. The study of the Opera, Lucia Di Lammermoor, is one of unusual interest and was delightfully told by Mrs. B. R. Lewis. We quote a few thoughts as given as an introductory to her review of the Opera:

First, she compared the Opera with Wagner's Italian Operas, Wagner's being symbolical and allegorical; second, Italian opera is a dramatic portrayal of human emotions. The story of most operas are not original but are borrowed from myth and legend or from some standard work of fiction or some historical incident. The general thought idea is there is nothing new under the sun but humanity is actuated by the same emotions in all ages. This opera is the interpretation of Sir Walter Scott's novel The Bride of Lammermoor.

The Opera is in three acts. Cast Lord Henry Ashton, Baritone. Lucia Di Lammermoor, his sister, Soprano. Edgar of Ravenswood, Tenor. Lord Arthur Bucklan, Tenor. Raymond, Bass. Gilbert, Tenor.

Alice Lucia's Confidante, Soprano. Place, Scotland; Time, 1700.

Edgar and Lucia love each other although their families are at enmity, when Lucia's brother, Henry Ashton, the head of the family, ascertains the state of affairs; he endeavors by a forged letter to prove Edgar unfaithful and informs Lucia that only by a marriage with Lord Arthur can the ruin of their house be averted. Lucia yields to pressure but when Edgar returns curses her for her unfaithfulness, tears the ring from her finger, and treads it under foot. She becomes insane, she slays Arthur in the bridal chamber, and dies in anguish. When Edgar learns of Lucia's death and of her innocence he kills himself upon her grave.

The telling of the story was interspersed by the following music taken from the Opera Lucia Di Lammermoor: Music for 1st Act; Piano Overture—Mrs. Hampton and Mrs. Stiles.

The Vengeance Song—Mrs. Hampton and Mrs. Stiles.

Music for 2nd Act.
Violin Solo—When Twilight Shadows Lower—Mr. LaMotte, Violin; Mrs. Harrison, Piano.
Sixtette, Victrola.

Caruso, Scotti, Simbrich, Journet and Mrs. Stiles.

Music for 3rd Act.
The Mad Song, Victrola—Mehta.
The Waltz Song—Cast on My Grave A Flower—Piano Solo.

Mrs. Stiles.
Violin Solo—Thou Hast Spread Thy Wings to Heaven—Mr. LaMotte, Violin; Mrs. Harrison, Piano.
O Thou Adored One—Victrola—Constantine.

Piano Overture—Mrs. Harrison and Mrs. Forbes.

The sentiment for the day:
"I am never merry when I hear sweet music."—Shakespeare.

The music throughout was of a high order and well rendered by home talent. The addition of the fine victrola assisted greatly in the enjoyment of the occasion. The mad song is one of the favorite selections for the voices of great Prima Donnas; the beautiful song by Mehta was exquisite and intensely real.

NEW BARBER SHOP.

H. Jentoft has opened a barber shop in the Tremont Hotel on Thayer street. Mr. Jentoft has for the last two years held a chair at the Dusel shop and a few months ago successfully passed the state barber's examination. He will conduct a clean, sanitary shop and guarantees first class workmanship.

GREAT "HOME-GOING"

About 5000 Scandinavians to Make Trip to Mother Land

Between 4,000 and 5,000 Scandinavians people of the northwestern portion of the United States are planning a trip to "the old country" during the summer of 1912, and a committee of prominent Swedish and Finnish citizens are now making arrangements for the journey. This will be the biggest "home-going" body of alien citizens of the United States ever sent across the Atlantic. Special trains from northwestern points to New York City and a special ocean steamship will be chartered for the great excursion.

The Swedish and Finnish Americans plan to leave this country for Europe early in July, going direct from New York City to Stockholm, where they will arrive in time to take in the Olympic games. From Stockholm they will scatter to all parts of Sweden, Norway, Finland and Russia, spending about two months abroad. Practically all who make the trip will return to this country.

ITALIANS TO HAVE THEIR TRIAL SOON

Arguments Are Heard At Wausau In Case Of Roberti and Imperio

In circuit court for Marathon county at Wausau today, arguments will be heard in the case against Roberti and Imperio, the two Italians charged with the murder of Sheriff John Radcliffe of Vilas county.

"The Wausau Pilot states that the firm of Smart, Van Doren & Curtis of Merrill represent Imperio and his attorneys will ask that he be tried separately. The prosecution will be conducted by Geo. O'Connor, district attorney of Vilas county, and M. B. Rosenberry of Wausau. The case will not be taken up before two weeks.

In Rhinelander the trial of the two men will be watched with interest. In face of the evidence against them it is impossible to see how they can expect to escape receiving full punishment for their crime. The killing of Sheriff Radcliffe was one of the most cold blooded and uncalculated murders in the history of northern Wisconsin and had the licensed people of Eagle River had their way the Italians would long ago have answered to a higher judge for their deed. Fortunately the law has been permitted to take its course.

It is rumored that Roberti and Imperio will not lack for funds with which to fight their case as Italian friends are ready with financial assistance.

CANNOT CLAIM HIS MONEY

Bank Robber, Arrested Here, Has $400 In Cash At Sparta

Jim Radley, accused bank robber, who was arrested by Chief of Police Straub in this city, about three years ago, on the charge of burglarizing the bank at Warren, Monroe county, has four hundred dollars to his credit in a safety deposit vault at Sparta. Radley, who after his arrest escaped from the Sparta jail, dare not return to claim the money, as he would run the risk of going to the state prison for twenty years on the charge of bank robbery.

When Chief Straub arrested Radley he had this money in his possession but was relieved of the roll by the authorities at Sparta. It is supposed to be money stolen from the Warren bank, but as Radley was never convicted the bank can not claim the money as its own.

Items of More or Less Im- portance Boiled Down From Neighboring Exchanges

Oconto—
It isn't often that $500 waits 20 years before its owner is found but such a case recently came to light when Cashier Smith of the Oconto National Bank located the widow of Alex Maxwell at Marinette. Her husband before his death nearly 20 years ago deposited the money and took two certificates of deposit. After the end of a year he was notified to call and renew the certificates but for some reason the certificates were never presented or the money claimed. The money was about to escheat to the state when the widow was located.

Florence—
The ore shipping season closed last Wednesday, at least as far as Florence is concerned. During the season just ended the Florence Iron Company shipped approximately 94,000 tons of ore from its Florence mine in this city. When the mine re-opened a few weeks ago, after a four months' closure due to a string-ent market, there was in the neighborhood of 70,000 tons of ore in stock. Of this large amount, nearly 50,000 tons have been forwarded to Eastern ore ports. Within the past week or ten days the steam shovel was kept busy loading ore cars both day and night, some 14,000 tons having been shipped during that time. The Florence mine made an exceedingly remarkable record this year, considering the chaotic condition of the iron ore market during the entire year of 1911.

Marshfield—
Lumbermen are preparing to cut only about two-thirds as much timber as last year, and have made up their crews accordingly. The Upham Manufacturing company has about the same number of men in the woods as a year ago, and the Roddis Lumber company is working with a smaller crew near Park Falls.

Ladysmith—
While hunting with a party of four men near Crane, Joseph Grotto, aged 43, accidentally shot himself through the lower part of the abdomen and died almost instantly. Mr. Grotto had a double barreled shot gun loaded with buck shot and was standing on a stump. He apparently let the weapon slip, the hammer catching on the edge of the stump causing the discharge.

Marinette—
Jacob May, a recidivist, was found in his home in a starving condition. He is a miser and on his person when brought to the hospital was $1360 in currency and $5000 in certificates of deposit on a local bank. The money was sewed up in a shirt. May also owns considerable property in this city and owns the Marinette ball park. He has no known relatives and a guardian has been appointed for him by the probate court.

Washburn—
The Stearns Lumber company has closed down for the season. The plant has had a very successful night and day run the past summer and turned out a large amount of lumber and lath, giving steady employment to 300 men. All the mills on Chequamegon bay are now closed for the winter, the Schroeder mill at Ashland; the Hines mill at Iron River; the Sprague mill at Washburn; and the Bayfield Box Factory at Bayfield, having ceased operations within the last two weeks.

Ironwood—
John Martin of Bessemer, who in circuit court pleaded guilty to a heinous crime, the victim of which was his fourteen year old stepdaughter, has been sentenced to serve a term of seven to fourteen years in the Marquette prison by Judge Cooper, the court recommending that Martin serve the maximum.

Grandon—
Fire at Laona destroyed the Sargent hotel, owned by Len Sargent, and the finest building of its kind in Forest county. The fire broke out at about 7:00 o'clock in the morning, when some of the guests were yet in bed. One hundred and sixty people were boarding and living in the hotel and only a few had time to save their belongings. The building was valued at $25,000 and was insured for $15,000.

Hurley—
The officers made another attempt toward wiping out vice in this town Friday when they raided the White Front saloon and arrested the bartender, Thos. Fitzgibbon, and three women inmates. All were fined heavily and left Hurley on the first train. The question now arises as to whether the town board will revoke the license of the White Front. From past actions of the board it would seem that the members are not in accord with Sheriff Whiteside's plans to free Hurley of prostitutes and dens of vice.

Grand Rapids—
The new Congregational church erected during the last year at a cost of $50,000 was formally dedicated Sunday, Nov. 25. The Grand Rapids Tribune says: "The new church is not only the nicest one in this city, but it is probably the most handsome edifice owned by a Congregational society in this part of the state. There may be others that are larger and cost more money, but it is doubtful if there is one anywhere that is more up-to-date, in every respect than the one now located in our city."

Gladstone—
The Harwarden Inn, for years Gladstone's leading hotel, has been taken over by Father Bennett for the Marquette diocese. The church secured an option on the property some time ago. It is stated that the amount paid was $9500 which is considered a low figure. Originally the hotel cost about $30,000. The church will convert the building into a school and a home for the Sisters and it is thought that the necessary alterations can be made at but little expense.

Barron—
Petition for a pardon has been filed with Gov. McGovern by Thos. Jones, 55 years old, who on Sept. 23, 1884, was sentenced from Barron to life imprisonment on his plea of guilty to murder in the first degree. He killed a man during a fight over money which belonged to Jones and which the victim grabbed from a card table. Fear of being lynched caused Jones to plead guilty. He says in his petition that the crime could not be greater than manslaughter and that he has now served 27 years, or 2 years more than the maximum penalty for the highest degree of manslaughter.

AROUND THE CIRCLE

The Union Orchestra seems to be in good demand of late as it had three engagements last week, one at Hiles, North Crandon and at Goodman.

H. Deas is spending a few days in the town of Pelican at the home of W. Meyers.

A good old fashioned Thanksgiving dinner was held at the home of A. Hixon, in the town of Pelican, in which all the friends and neighbors were invited to attend and each family to bring a chicken and a pumpkin pie. Mr. and Mrs. Hixon seem to be splendid entertainers and every one who partook of the sumptuous repast felt well repaid for their trouble.

F. Perry has quite an extensive logging contract at Monico, from Matt Stapleton, and moves his family there this week to commence operations at once.

A new arrival put in an appearance at the home of Gordon Beck last week, and Gordon says he has come to stay.

Miss Rosa Keostler has been doing the domestic work at the home of Gordon Beck the past week during the illness of Mrs. Beck.

F. Cole is marketing his dry wood now that he had hauled out last winter and there seems to be a good demand for it. Frank also has a logging contract at Dundre, which he expects to commence soon.

Miss Ella Landberg, who has been assisting in the culinary department at the home of J. Owens, for the past week, is again at home.

The family of J. Ludgren moved into the Wm. Matteson place last week.

Geo. Kramer moved into the new cottage just completed at the power house last week and Ray Ford moved into the one made vacant by Geo.

A. C. Radke has been getting Xmas trees for the past couple of weeks for the Chicago market.

There seems to be quite an attraction for Charley Fentor at the Noisy Creek school lately. His mule and himself were greatly in evidence there at the Thanksgiving program. Perhaps Miss Frawley could explain the reason.

John Vieux has again gone to the lumber camps at Bundy to complete his winter's work.

Ed. Maloney, the Frenchman, has taken a woodcutting contract from J. Hess for the winter and has it well underway.

TAFT IS FOR TRUST LAW

Annual Message Deals With One Subject.

DEFENDS DECISIONS OF COURT

In Cases of Standard Oil and Tobacco Companies.

THINKS AMENDMENTS NEEDED

Believes Present Statutes Good as Far as They Go but Suggests Supplemental Legislation—For Federal Corporation Law.

Washington, Dec. 5.—President Taft's annual message, which was read in both houses of congress today, deals exclusively with the anti-trust statute. The full text of the message is as follows:

To the Senate and House of Representatives: This message is the first of several which I shall send to congress during the interval between the opening of its regular session and its adjournment for the Christmas holidays. The amount of information to be communicated as to the operations of the government, the number of important subjects calling for comment by the executive, and the transmission to congress of exhaustive reports by special commissions, make it impossible to include in one message of a reasonable length a discussion of the topics that ought to be brought to the attention of the national legislature at its first regular session.

The Anti-Trust Law—The Supreme Court Decisions.

In May last the Supreme court handed down decisions in the suits in equity brought by the United States to enjoin the further maintenance of the Standard Oil trust and of the American Tobacco trust, and to secure their dissolution. The decisions are epoch-making and serve to advise the business world authoritatively of the scope and operation of the anti-trust act of 1890. The decisions do not depart in any substantial way from the previous decisions of the court in construing and applying this important statute, but they clarify those important decisions by further defining the already admitted exceptions to the literal construction of the act. By the decrees, they furnish a useful precedent as to the proper method of dealing with the capital and property of illegal trusts. These decisions suggest the need and wisdom of additional or supplemental legislation to make it easier for the entire business community to square with the rule of action and legality thus finally established and to preserve the benefit, freedom and spur of reasonable competition without loss of real efficiency or progress.

No Change in the Rule of Decision—Merely in Its Form of Expression.

The statute in its first section declares to be illegal "every contract, combination in the form of trust or otherwise, or conspiracy, in restraint of trade or commerce among the several states or with foreign nations," and in the second, declares guilty of a misdemeanor every person who shall monopolize or attempt to monopolize or combine or conspire with any other person to monopolize any part of the trade or commerce of the several states or with foreign nations."

In two early cases, where the statute was invoked to enjoin a transportation agreement between interstate railroad companies, it was held that it was no defense to show that the agreement as to rates complained of was reasonable at common law, because it was said that the statute was directed against all contracts and combinations in restraint of trade whether reasonable at common law or not. It was plain from the record, however, that the contracts complained of in those cases would not have been deemed reasonable at common law. In subsequent cases the court said that the statute should be given a reasonable construction and refused to include within its inhibition certain contractual restraints of trade which it considered as incidental or as acts of restraint of trade that accepted from the operation were instances which, at stake-day, would have been called formerly, in the Standard Oil and Powder cases, therefore, the court light, digged the tests of the common law, and found exceptions to the application of the statute. Send for the test of being indirect, that of being in the actual scope and of the same way if the court finally accepted in its construction at common law. It has been said that the court by its late construction the statute common law distinctions, has emasculated it. This is obviously untrue. By its judgment every contract and combination in restraint of interstate trade made with the purpose or necessary effect of controlling prices by stifling competition, or of establishing in whole or in part a monopoly of such trade, is condemned by the statute. The most extreme critics cannot instance a case that ought to be condemned under the statute which is not brought within its terms as thus construed.

The suggestion is also made that the Supreme court by its decision in the last two cases has committed to the court the undefined and unlimited discretion to determine whether a case of restraint of trade is within the terms of the statute. This is wholly untrue. A reasonable restraint of trade at common law is well understood and is clearly defined. It does not rest in the discretion of the court. It must be limited to accomplish the purpose of a lawful main contract to which, in order that it shall be enforceable at all, it must be incidental. If it exceeds the needs of that contract it is void.

The test of reasonableness was never applied by the court at common-law to contracts or combinations or conspiracies in restraint of trade whose purpose was or whose necessary effect would be to stifle competition, to control prices, or establish monopolies. The courts never assumed power to say that such contracts or combinations or conspiracies might be lawful if the parties to them were only moderate in the use of the power thus secured and did not exact from the public too great and exorbitant prices. It is true that many theorists, and others engaged in business violating the statute, have hoped that some such line could be drawn by courts; but no court of authority has ever attempted it. Certainly there is nothing in the decisions of the latest two cases which should be a dangerous theory of judicial discretion in enforcing this statute can derive the slightest sanction.

Force and Effectiveness of Statute a Matter of Growth.

We have been twenty-one years making this statute effective for the purposes for which it was enacted. The Knight case was discouraging and seemed to remit to the states the whole available power to attack and suppress the evils of the trusts. Slowly, however, the errors of that judgment was corrected, and only in the last three or four years has the heavy hand of the law been laid upon the great illegal combinations that have exercised such an absolute dominion over many of our industries. Criminal prosecutions have been brought and a number are pending, but juries have felt averse to convicting for jail sentences, and judges have been most reluctant to impose such sentences on men of respectable standing in society whose offense has been regarded as merely statutory. Still, as the offense becomes better understood and the committing of it takes more of studied and deliberate defiance of the law, we can be confident that juries will convict individuals and that jail sentences will be imposed.

The Remedy in Equity by Dissolution.

In the Standard Oil case the Supreme and circuit courts found the combination to be a monopoly of the interstate business of refining, transporting, and marketing petroleum and its products, effected and maintained through thirty-seven different corporations, the stock of which was held by a New Jersey company. It in effect commanded the dissolution of this combination, directed the transfer and pro rata distribution by the New Jersey company of the stock held by it in the thirty-seven corporations to and among its stockholders, and the corporations and individual defendants were enjoined from conspiring or combining to restore such monopoly; and all agreements between the subsidiary corporations tending to produce or bring about further violations of the act were enjoined.

In the Tobacco case, the court found that the individual defendants, twenty-nine in number, had been engaged in a successful effort to acquire complete dominion over the manufacture, sale, and distribution of tobacco in this country and abroad, and that this had been done by combinations made with a purpose and effect to stifle competition, control prices, and establish a monopoly, not only in the manufacture of tobacco, but also of tin-foil and licorice used in its manufacture and of its products of cigars, cigarettes, and snuffs. The tobacco suit presented a far more complicated and difficult case than the Standard Oil suit for a decree which would effectuate the will of the court and end the violation of the statute. There was here no single holding company as in the case of the Standard Oil trust. The main company was the American Tobacco company, a manufacturing, selling, and holding company. The plan adopted to destroy the combination and restore competition involved the redivision of the capital and plants of the whole trust between some of the companies constituting the trust and new companies organized for the purposes of the decree and made parties to it and numbering, new and old, fourteen.

Situation After Readjustment.

The American Tobacco company (old) readjusted capital, $29,000,000; the Liggett and Meyers Tobacco company (new), capital, $67,000,000; the P. Lorillard company (new), capital, $47,000,000, and the E. J. Reynolds Tobacco company (old) capital, $7,335,000, are chiefly engaged in the manufacture and sale of chewing and smoking tobacco and cigars. The former one tin-foil company is divided into two, one of $325,000 capital and the other of $100,000. The one snuff company is divided into three companies, one with a capital of $15,000,000; another with a capital of $5,000,000; and a third with a capital of $8,000,000. The licorice companies are two, one with a capital of $5,758,000 and another with a capital of $2,000,000. There is, also, the British-American Tobacco company, a British corporation, doing business abroad with a capital of $26,000,000, the Porto Rican Tobacco company with a capital of $1,500,000, and the corporation of United Cigar Stores, with a capital of $3,000,000. Under this arrangement each of the different kinds of business will be distributed between two or more companies, with a division of the prominent brands in the same tobacco products, so as to make competition not only possible but necessary. Thus the smoking tobacco business of the country is divided so that the present independent companies have 21.39 per cent., while the American Tobacco company will have 33.08 per cent., the Liggett and Meyers 20.05 per cent., the Lorillard company 22.52 per cent., and the Reynolds company 2.66 per cent. The stock of the other thirteen companies, both preferred and common, has been taken from the defendant American Tobacco company and has been distributed among its stockholders. All covenants restricting competition have been declared null and further performance of them has been enjoined. The preferred stock of the different companies has now been given voting power which was denied it under the old organization. The ratio of the preferred stock to the common was as 78 to 40. This constitutes a very decided change in the character of the ownership and control of each company.

In the original suit there were twenty-nine defendants who were charged with being the conspirators through whom the illegal combination acquired and exercised its unlawful dominion. Under the decree these defendants will hold amounts of stock in the various distributed companies ranging from 41 per cent. as a maximum to 28½ per cent. as a minimum, except in the case of one small company, the Porto Rican Tobacco company, in which they will hold 45 per cent. The twenty-nine individual defendants are enjoined for three years from buying any stock except from each other, and the group is thus prevented from extending its control during that period. All parties to the suit, and the new companies who are made parties, are enjoined perpetually from in any way effecting any combination between any of the companies in violation of the statute by way of resumption of the old trust. Each of the fourteen companies is enjoined from acquiring stock in any of the others. All these companies are enjoined from having common directors or officers, or common buying or selling agents, or common offices, or lending money to each other.

Size of New Companies.

Objection was made by certain independent tobacco companies that this settlement was unjust because it left companies with very large capital in active business, and that the settlement that would be effective to put all on an equality would be a division of the capital and plant of the trust into small factions in amount more nearly equal to that of each of the independent companies. This contention results from a misunderstanding of the anti-trust law and its purpose. It is not intended thereby to prevent the accumulation of large capital in business enterprises in which such a combination can secure reduced cost of production, sale and distribution. It is directed against such an aggregation of capital only when its purpose is that of stifling competition, enhancing or controlling prices and establishing a monopoly. If we shall have by the decree defeated these purposes and restored competition between the large units into which the capital and plant have been divided, we shall have accomplished the useful purpose of the statute.

Confiscation Not the Purpose of the Statute.

It is not the purpose of the statute to confiscate the property and capital of the offending trusts. Methods of punishment by fine or imprisonment of the individual offenders, by fine of the corporation, or by forfeiture of its goods in transportation, are provided, but the proceeding in equity is a specific remedy to stop the operation of the trust by injunction and prevent the future use of the plant and capital in violation of the statute.

Effectiveness of Decree.

I venture to say that not in the history of American law has a decree more effective for such a purpose been entered by a court than that against the Tobacco trust. As Circuit Judge Noyes said in his judgment approving the decree:

"The extent to which it has been necessary to tear apart this combination and force it into new forms with the attendant burdens ought to demonstrate that the federal anti-trust statute is a drastic statute which accomplishes effective results; which so long as it stands on the statute books must be obeyed, and which cannot be disobeyed without incurring far-reaching penalties. And, on the other hand, the successful reconstruction of this organization should teach that the effect of enforcing this statute is not to destroy, but to reconstruct; not to demolish but to recreate in accordance with the conditions which the congress has declared shall exist among the people of the United States."

Common-Stock Ownership.

It has been assumed that the present pro-rata and common ownership in all these companies by former stockholders of the trust would insure a continuance of the same old single control of all the companies into which the trust has by decree been disintegrated. This is erroneous and is based upon the assumed inefficiency and inanelessness of judicial injunctions. The companies are enjoined from cooperation or combination; they have different managers, directors, purchasing and sales agents. If all or any of the numerous stockholders, reaching into the thousands, attempt to secure concerted action of the companies with a view to the control of the market, their number is so large that such an attempt could not well be concealed and its prime movers and all its participants would be at once subject to contempt proceedings and imprisonment of a summary character. The immediate result of the present situation will necessarily be actively by all the companies under different managers, and then competition must follow, or there will be activity by one company and stagnation by another. Only a short time will inevitably lead to a change in ownership of the stock, as all opportunity for continued co-operation must disappear. Those critics who speak of this disintegration in the trust as a mere change of garments have not given consideration to the inevitable working of the decree and understand little the personal danger of attempting to evade or set at naught the solemn injunction of a court whose object is made plain by the decree and whose inhibitions are set forth with a detail and comprehensiveness unexampled in the history of equity jurisprudence.

The effect of these two decisions has led to decrees dissolving the combination of manufacturers of electric lamps, a southern wholesale grocers' association, an interlocking decree against the powder trust with directions by the circuit court compelling dissolution, and other combinations of a similar history are now negotiating with the department of justice looking to a disintegration by decree and reorganization in accordance with law. It seems possible to bring about these reorganizations without general business disturbance.

Movement for Repeal of the Anti-Trust Law.

But now that the anti-trust act is seen to be effective for the accomplishment of the purpose of its enactment, we are met by a cry from many different quarters for its repeal. It is said to be obstructive of business progress, to be an attempt to restore old-fashioned methods of destructive competition between small units, and to make impossible those useful combinations of capital and the reduction of the cost of production that are essential to continued prosperity and normal growth.

In the recent decisions the Supreme court makes clear that there is nothing in the statute which condemns combinations of capital or mere bigness of plant organized to secure economy in production and a reduction of its cost. It is only when the purpose or necessary effect of the organization and maintenance of the combination or the aggregation of immense size are the stifling of competition, actual and potential, and the enhancing of prices and establishing a monopoly, that the statute is violated. Mere size is no sin against the law. The merging of two or more business plants necessarily eliminates competition between the units thus combined, but this elimination is in contravention of the statute only when the combination is made for purpose of ending this particular competition in order to secure control of, and enhance, prices and create a monopoly.

Lack of Definiteness in the Statute.

The complaint is made of the statute that it is not sufficiently definite in its description of that which is forbidden, to enable business men to avoid its violation. The suggestion is, that we may have a combination of two corporations, which may run on for years, and that subsequently the attorney general may conclude that it was a violation of the statute, and that which was supposed by the combiners to be innocent then turns out to be a combination in violation of the statute. The answer to this hypothetical case is that when men attempt to amass stupendous capital as will enable them to suppress competition, control prices and establish a monopoly they know the purpose of their acts. Men do not do such a thing without having it clearly in mind. If what they do is merely for the purpose of reducing the cost of production, without the thought of suppressing competition by use of the bigness of the plant they are creating, then they cannot be convicted at the time the union is made, nor can they be convicted later, unless it happen that later on they conclude to suppress competition and take the usual methods for doing so, and thus establish for themselves a monopoly. They can, in such a case, hardly complain if the motive which subsequently is disclosed is attributed by the court to the original combination.

New Remedies Suggested.

Much is said of the repeal of this statute and of constructive legislation intended to accomplish the purpose and blaze a clear path for honest merchants and business men to follow. It may be that such a plan will be evolved, but I submit that the diagnoses which have been brought out in recent days by the fear of the continued execution of the anti-trust law have produced nothing but glittering generalities and have offered no line of distinction or rule of action as definite and as clear as that which the Supreme court itself lays down in enforcing the statute.

Supplemental Legislation Needed—Not Repeal or Amendment.

I see no objection—and indeed I can see decided advantages—in the enactment of a law which shall describe and denounce methods of competition, which are unfair and are badges of the unlawful purpose denounced in the anti-trust law. The attempt and purpose to suppress a competitor by underselling him at a price so unprofitable as to drive him out of business, or the making of exclusive contracts with customers under which they are required to give up association with other manufacturers, and numerous other methods for stifling competition and effecting monopoly, should be described with sufficient accuracy in a criminal statute on the one hand to enable the government to shorten its task by prosecuting single misdoers instead of an entire conspiracy, and, on the other hand, to serve the purpose of pointing out more in detail to the business community what must be avoided.

Federal Incorporation Recommended.

In a special message to congress on January 7, 1910, I ventured to point out the disturbance to business that would probably attend the dissolution of these offending trusts. I said:

"But such an investigation and possible prosecution of corporations whose prosperity or destruction affects the comfort not only of stockholders but of millions of wage earners, employees, and associated tradesmen must necessarily tend to disturb the confidence of the business community, to dry up the now flowing sources of capital from its places of hoarding, and produce a halt in our present prosperity that will cause suffering and strained circumstances among the innocent many for the faults of the guilty few. The question which I wish in this message to bring clearly to the consideration and discussion of congress is whether, in order to avoid such a possible business danger, something cannot be done by which these business combinations may be offered a means, without great financial disturbance, of changing the character, organization, and extent of their business into one within the lines of the law under federal control and supervision, securing compliance with the anti-trust statute."

"Generally, in the industrial combinations, called 'Trusts,' the principal business is the sale of goods in many states and in foreign markets; in other words, the interstate and foreign business far exceeds the business done in any one state. This fact will justify the federal government in granting a federal charter to such a combination to make and sell in interstate and foreign commerce the products of useful manufacture under such limitations as will secure a compliance with the anti-trust law. It is possible so to frame a statute that while it offers protection to a federal company against harmful, vexatious, and unnecessary invasion by the states, it shall subject it to reasonable taxation and control by the states with respect to its purely local business."

"Corporations organized under this act should be prohibited from acquiring and holding stock in other corporations (except for special reasons, upon approval by the proper federal authority), thus avoiding the creation under national auspices of the holding company with subordinate corporations in different states, which has been such an effective agency in the creation of the great trusts and monopolies."

"If the prohibition of the anti-trust act against combinations in restraint of trade is to be effectively enforced, it is essential that the national government shall provide for the creation of national corporations to carry on a legitimate business throughout the United States. The conflicting laws of the different states of the Union with respect to foreign corporations makes it difficult, if not impossible, for one corporation to comply with their requirements so as to carry on business in a number of different states."

I renew the recommendation of the enactment of a general law providing for the voluntary formation of corporations to engage in trade and commerce among the states and with foreign nations. Every argument which was then advanced for such a law, and every explanation which was at that time offered to possible objections, have been confirmed by our experience since the enforcement of the anti-trust statute has resulted in the actual dissolution of active commercial organizations.

It is even more manifest now than it was then that the denunciation of conspiracies in restraint of trade should not and does not mean the denial of organizations large enough to be entrusted with our interstate and foreign trade. It has been made more clear now than it was then that a purely negative statute like the anti-trust law may well be supplemented by specific provisions for the building up and regulation of legitimate national and foreign commerce.

Government Administrative Experts Needed to Aid Courts in Trust Dissolutions.

The drafting of the decrees in the dissolution of the present trusts, with a view to their reorganization into legitimate corporations, has made it especially apparent that the courts are not provided with the administrative machinery to make the necessary inquiries preparatory to reorganization, or to pursue such inquiries, and they should be empowered to invoke the aid of the bureau of corporations in determining the suitable reorganization of the dis-integrating parts. The circuit court, and the attorney general were greatly aided in framing the decrees in the tobacco trust dissolution by an expert from the bureau of corporations, Federal Corporation Commission proposed.

I do not set forth in detail the terms and sections of a statute which might supply the constructive legislation permitting and aiding the formation of combinations of capital into federal corporations. They should be subject to rigid rules as to their organization and procedure, including effective publicity, and to the closest supervision as to the issue of stock and bonds by an executive bureau or commission in the department of commerce and labor, to which in times of doubt they might well submit their proposed plans for future business. It must be distinctly understood that incorporation under a federal law could not exempt the company thus formed and its incorporators and managers from prosecution under the anti-trust law for subsequent illegal conduct, but the publicity of its procedure and the opportunity for frequent consultation with the bureau or commission in charge of the incorporation as to the legitimate purpose of its transactions would offer it as great security against successful prosecutions for violations of the law as would be practical or wise.

Such a bureau or commission might well be invested also with the duty already referred to, of aiding courts in the dissolution and recreation of trusts within the law. It should be an executive tribunal of the dignity and power of the comptroller of the currency or the interstate commerce commission, which now exercise supervisory power over important classes of corporations under federal regulation.

The drafting of such a federal incorporation law would offer ample opportunity to prevent many manifest evils in corporate management today, including irresponsibility of control in the hands of the few who are not the real owners.

Incorporation Voluntary.

I recommend that the federal charter thus to be granted shall be voluntary, at least until experience justifies mandatory provisions. The benefit to be derived from the operation of great businesses under the protection of such a charter would attract all who are anxious to keep within the lines of the law. Other large combinations that fail to take advantage of the federal incorporation will not have a right to complain if their failure is ascribed to unwillingness to submit their transactions to the careful scrutiny, competent supervision and publicity attendant upon the enjoyment of such a charter.

Supplemental Legislation Needed.

The opportunity thus suggested for federal incorporation, it seems to me, is suitable constructive legislation needed to facilitate the squaring of great industrial enterprises to the rule of action laid down by the anti-trust law. This statute, as construed by the Supreme court must continue to be the line of distinction for legitimate business. It must be enforced, unless we are to banish individualism from all business and reduce it to one common system of regulation or control of prices like that which now prevails with respect to public utilities, and which when applied to all businesses would be a long step toward state socialism.

Importance of the Anti-Trust Act.

The anti-trust act is the expression of the effort of a freedom-loving people to preserve equality of opportunity. It is the result of the confident determination of such a people to maintain their future growth by preserving uncontrolled and unrestricted the enterprise of the individual, his ingenuity, his intelligence and his independent courage.

For twenty years or more this statute has been upon the statute book. All knew of its general purpose and approved. Many of its violators were cynical over its assumed impotence.

It seemed impossible of enforcement. Slowly the mills of the courts ground, and only gradually did the majesty of the law assert itself. Many of its statesmen-authors died before it became a living force, and they and others saw the evil grow which they had hoped to destroy. Now, its efficacy is seen; now its power is heavy; now its object is near achievement. Now we hear the call for its repeal on the plea that it interferes with business prosperity, and we are advised in most general terms how, by some other statute and in some other way, the evil we are just stamping out can be cured, if we only abandon this work of twenty years and try another experiment for another term of years.

It is said that the act has not done good. Can this be said in the face of the effect of the Northern Securities decree?

That decree was in no way so drastic or inhibitive in detail as either the Standard Oil decree or the tobacco decree; but did it not stop for all time the then powerful movement toward the control of all the railroads of the country in a single hand?

Such a one-man power could not have been a healthful instance in the republic, even though exercised under the general supervision of an interstate commission.

Do we desire to make such ruthless combinations and monopolies lawful? When all energies are directed, not toward the reduction of the cost of production for the public benefit by a healthful competition, but toward new ways and means for making permanent in a few hands the absolute control of the conditions and prices prevailing in the whole field of industry, than individual enterprise and effort will be paralyzed and the spirit of commercial freedom will be dead.

Wisconsin, during the ten years ending in 1910, stood first among all states of the union in the production of flax, barley, oats, spring wheat; second in potatoes; fourth in rye; fifth in corn and fifth in hay. Wisconsin leads all non-irrigated states in the production of sugar beets, and it has more butter and cheese factories than any other state.

Wanted—A boy to learn the printing trade, machinery and type department. Inquire at The New North.

President Taft's message is given in full on another page. He dwells at length upon the trusts but practically says nothing on the tariff which he refused to consider until this time; it is thought he may take this up in a special message at a later date.

The county board showed their appreciation of faithful officials by the reelection of Peter Doyle as Poor Commissioner and his capable faithful wife as matron at the county poor farm. This is as it should be, when officials are once employed they should remain in office so long as they are faithful to duty.

The same old game by the same old bunch, the News has a solicitor, out the same as a year ago, asking advertising of the merchants upon the pledge of a Christmas issue of 2500. If so, we suppose there will be another hand bill game of a half dozen at each door in the center of the city instead of issuing to bona fide subscribers through the county.

With Editor Lowell of the New North a red hot La Follette man, his wife associate editress, a genuine believer in woman suffrage, on one side and the corporations of Rhinelander as owners of the Rhinelander News, with a "man-Friday-has-been" for editor on the other side, the sparks ought to fly in that locality during the campaign next years.—Antigo News Item.

What our neighbors think of us.

Is it conceivable that Taft would say: "I am opposed to the Presidential primary; I prefer to trust my chances to the Federal office holders and the voters?" Is it conceivable that any of the various candidates, Democratic or Republican, could refuse to subscribe to this statement: "I do not wish to be the candidate unless a majority of the members of my party want me?"—Collins' Weekly.

ANNUAL SESSION ENDS

The county board closed its annual session last evening after four days work. All of the business usually disposed of at this time was considered and as we believe, settled to the satisfaction of most people. An entirely wrong view of such a gathering of men is often held by people, they think the members assume to own the county and are handling matters to help themselves; whereas such a body, as a whole, looks at public questions carefully and does what it believes is best for public good.

Fifteen months after the local special interest organ was created to put the New North out of business, because of its bold utterances for truth and the cause of the people, the New North is at the old stand with much larger quarters and the most complete and up-to-date outfit in this part of the state and has not been compelled to make any large loans to keep its head above water either. We must give the masses the credit for this: they admire the paper that comes boldly forward and writes the truth, irrespective of where the chips may fall.

RETAIN GARNER

Although other applications were made for the position of county doctor, Doctor H. L. Garner was overwhelmingly re-elected. The doctor has served in his present capacity for several years and given entire satisfaction. His services were rewarded by almost unanimous reelection although another bid was filed at a lower price, after the doctor's bid was made public.

The majority of the county board are entitled to praise in their manly action in practically ignoring the lower bid which was not filed until bids were opened and Doctor Garner's bid was known.

AFFIDAVIT WOULD CONVINC

The News in a wrathful manner, attacks the New North for hinting at the true source of the article by C. H. H. so, we suppose there will be another hand bill game of a half dozen at each door in the center of the city instead of issuing to bona fide subscribers through the county.

"The letter was written by one of the leading citizens of this city, who is in no way connected, either with this paper nor related in any way to the Browns. Our readers may rest assured that when the editor of The News wishes to express an opinion he is not afraid to do so in the editorial columns, and he does not write letters to himself, a custom Mr. Lowell seems to be familiar with."

If the News will have the author make affidavit to the article over his own signature or if he refuses, make affidavit themselves, the New North will ask the writers of letters to the New North to testify to their own productions, and if they refuse, will do so itself.

This is an easy way of convincing our readers of the truth, Mr. News.

SHOULD NOT BE ABOLISHED

Under a new law passed at the last session of the legislature the office of supervisor of assessment is abolished. The report of B. N. Moran, supervisor of assessment, shows that he has done a vast amount of efficient work, that he has inspected many descriptions of land in the various towns of the county and has made a complete report which is now in pamphlet form.

Irrespective of past records of certain towns keeping their apportionment down, Mr. Moran was fearless in his report to the county board.

OMIT YOUR CHRISTMAS DINNER

And the Day Would Be a Failure

Your dinner will be a success if served with a brick of our best ice cream.

We will supply you with any flavor or combination of flavors, and quantity.

Place your order early to insure prompt delivery.

Have your milk man deliver your daily needs in milk and cream. We promise prompt service.

Order you butter and eggs from the milk wagon.

Remember Our Phone No. 77

Rhineland Creamery & Produce Co.

While his apportionment was not adopted in full by the board, the committee on apportionment was largely guided by it. Mr. Moran's thorough record as supervisor of assessment demonstrates to the man who knows the work that that office should not have been abolished and that Mr. Moran should have continued holding the position.

A RANK MISSTATEMENT

The News is guilty of a misstatement of facts when it says the city lost $10,000 in its waterworks fight. The plant could have been purchased several years earlier at $75,000 and that is practically what it cost the city in the end including all costs. If Rhinelander never gets worse deals during its existence there will be little cause for complaint.—Rhinelander Herald.

Even the modest editor of the Rhinelander Herald cannot sit still and let the local special interest organ continue its policy of untruths and falsifications without speaking out and exposing the lie to his readers.

If a man will tell one lie to gain greed and deceive his friends for public plunder, he cannot be believed in anything because in every emergency he will falsify; just so, with this Brown organ. It is here to cover up and deceive and now it is willing to tell an open falsehood to its readers and attempts to scare them to stop this electric light investigation so the Browns can continue in their half rates, but the Railroad Commission will investigate the case just the same.

WILL CARRY MICHIGAN

Michigan is certain to send a LaFollette delegation to the Republican National Convention. This is the opinion expressed by State Treasurer Dahl of Wisconsin, after a tour of that state:

"I feel confident that Senator LaFollette will carry Michigan. At present the state organization in Michigan is controlled by Taft men, but we have started a movement to organize every city, village and hamlet for the progressive movement. Governor Osborne was elected on a progressive platform, but he is considered a Taft man. United States Senator Townsend was elected upon a strictly progressive platform, but he, too, has gone over to Taft. The farm of Michigan are strong LaFollette, and fully 50 per cent of the traveling men I met in Michigan were Progressive. I met one farmer who told me he has voted for republican candidates for president from Lincoln to Taft, but that he would not support Taft if nominated, I found the same strong feeling everywhere I went."

McNAMARA CONFESSION

Last Friday, the whole nation was appalled by the confession of guilt of James B. McNamara who was being tried for blowing up the Times building in Los Angeles, Oct. 1, 1910 and killing twenty one people and the confession of his brother John J. McNamara, secretary of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Workers, of blowing up the Lewellen Iron Works of Los Angeles Dec. 25, 1910 where no lives were lost. These men have been sentenced respectively for life and for fifteen years in prison. No explanation can be given to excuse these criminals. They are the worst class of law breakers and there is no question but what others were in this awful work with them. We fully believe these two men are but part of a group of menaces to society that should not be at large. Think of the conflict between labor and capital that these two monsters have caused. Their crimes warrant the severest punishment but the district attorney and judge who have worked upon the case know best. We hope the other guilty ones will be brought to justice.

Labor has a right to combine the same as capital but both should use these advantages for the best good of society. There is nothing in the principles of labor unionism which would cause bloodshed or destruction and the organization as a whole should not be blamed for this awful crime but it should be a warning to all classes of society that violence should be avoided in all cases but judgement, reason and fair dealing should be appealed to in settling great questions.

TRIES TO AVOID LAW

The local special interest organ grows bolder in its misstatement of facts. Lying begets lying. Now it tries to carry the idea that the New North has stated something it has not. Read the editorial of The News and then read the statute the New North has at all times quoted in connection with this case:

F. A. Lowell's continued attacks upon Mr. E. O. Brown are so evidently malicious and unmerited as to bring contempt upon the editor of the New North. He tries to make out that Mr. Brown is disqualified to hold a position on the school board, because he is president of the Rhinelander Power Co., when he must know that the Rhinelander Power Co. is not a public service corporation and does not come under the law governing such concerns, and it is not required to make any report to the state commission, as does the Rhinelander Lighting Co. and the Telephone Co. The law does not prohibit the officers of such corporations from serving in a public capacity, fortunately for the welfare of the city.—Rhinelander News.

No person shall be eligible to any city office who directly or indirectly has any pecuniary interest in any contract for furnishing heat, light, water, power or other public service to or for such city or who is a stockholder in any corporation which has any such contract.

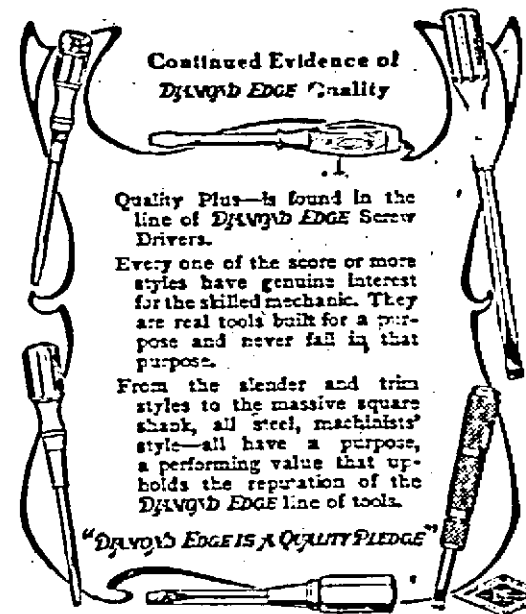

The Rhinelander Power Co. is a corporation; it sells power directly to the city of Rhinelander. E. O. Brown is a stockholder and its President, hence is not eligible to a city office. Readers, you see, in the eyes of the special interest organ a statement of the plain truth, when that truth touches one of its promoters, stockholders and dictators is a shameful attack but we are willing to leave this matter with our readers, and let them decide.

REPUDIATES OWN SPEECH

We have a President in the White House who admits that he has said things to the people in important public speeches which he had not prepared carefully and would not state again. If he has been slipped in the past and admits it why will he not make the same confession in a few months of what he is saying now, if he admits his Winona speech a failure why will he not later admit speeches he is making now not carefully prepared?

In his article in the Outlook of December 2nd, he says: "If I had prepared it (The Winona speech) two or three weeks before and revised it deliberately, as I ought to have done, I should have clarified several passages. And, particularly, I would have changed the sentence where I proclaim the Payne Tariff Act the best ever passed. The comparative would have been better than the superlative; for whatever its shortcomings, the act still contains less to be criticised than its predecessors."

The facts remain that President Taft was nominated and elected on a revision of the tariff downward and he joined hands with Aldrich-Payne and Cannon in keeping it up if not raising it and when he had an opportunity to lower it on important articles he vetoed the bills and now his record on the tariff is a repudiation of reductions but places him as a co-worker with the old gang to pass the atrocious Payne-Aldrich-Cannon

T. C. Wood Hardware Co.

Bill. "By their works ye shall know them". This same man who has violated his pledges to the people now asks his party to re-nominate him and re-elect him so that he can do so some more, a simple change of front in words to get another term.

CHARITY BALL IS GREAT SUCCESS

Attendance Large And League Nets $174.—Orchestra Music Excellent

One of the most successful public functions, both socially and financially, ever held in Rhinelander was the Charity Ball given under the auspices of the Charity League, Friday evening. The net proceeds from the ball amounted to $174.00 and this money was turned over to the league to be expended for charitable purposes in this city.

That the ball was thoroughly enjoyed by the large number that attended is evidenced by the pleasing expressions heard on all sides. It was a brilliant occasion which will linger long in the memories of all present. The Armory presented a very appearance with its pretty decorations. The floor was in ideal condition and the music by the Military Orchestra could not have been exceeded. The orchestra rendered all the latest dance selections in a style that elicited numerous encores and words of praise from those on the floor. It was by far the best music ever produced by that organization and would have done credit to any of the out of town orchestras that have played here. At twelve o'clock refreshments were served in the basement of the Congregational church. The members of the Charity League desire to thank the people for their support in patronizing the ball.

CHRISTMAS AT HERR'S

That his many patrons may have the best that the holiday market affords, B. L. Herr, has on sale a large stock of choice nuts, fruits, fancy groceries and delicacies of all kinds ordered especially for the Christmas and New Year's trade. No grocery emporium in any of the large cities offers to the consumers a more tempting stock from which to make selections for the yuletide menu. A table supplied with good things from Herr's would compare favorably with the banquet board of a European potentate or a thousand dollar spread at Sherry's. Remember this when you do your Christmas shopping and do it early at Herr's.

OPPOSES CARDINAL GIBBONS

Rt. Rev. Bishop A. F. Schlmer, bishop of the Superior Roman Catholic diocese, states a dispatch from Superior, disagrees with Cardinal Gibbons, Archbishop Ireland and other prelates of the church and went on record in favor of the referendum and recall in an address before a Catholic organization. ## DEATH OF MONICO BOY

Rolland Nye Had Been Ill Since Early Last Summer

Rolland Nye, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Nye, passed away at the Antigo hospital Dec. 5, at 11 a. m. Death was due to cancer of the liver, caused by a bruise on the knee.

Deceased was born at Antigo Nov. 15, 1893, but had lived at Monico for the past ten years. For several years, Rolland had helped earn a living for the family by working at the mill, until last summer when he became afflicted. He went to the Antigo hospital for treatment Sept. 23, and was there until the time of his death.

The remains were brought to Monico, Monday afternoon and the funeral services were conducted at the school house by Father Toplak of Eagle River, Tuesday morning at eleven o'clock. A choir sang several hymns. The following boys acted as pall bearers: Edward Carley, Fred Miner, Frank Borde, Leland Volk, Warren Jilson and Gus Taylor.

Relatives from out of town who attended the funeral were: Mrs. D. J. of Bessemer, Mich.; Mrs. Steffen and son, of Antigo, and J. Kusky of Stevens Point.

Deceased is survived by his father and mother, two brothers and a sister.

CLOSE THEIR ENGAGEMENT

Luick and Buck, the vanderville team who appeared at the Majestic last week, closed their engagement Sunday night after furnishing the patrons of the theater with plenty of clean, wholesome amusement. The pair produced several laughable sketches and their singing and dancing was good. The Majestic continues to draw big crowds and the house is usually packed at both evening shows.

UNDERGOES OPERATION

W. J. Monahan, proprietor of the Arlington Hotel, came home Tuesday from Chicago where he lately underwent a serious surgical operation. The operation was successful and although still very weak, Mr. Monahan is gaining gradually and his former good health will soon be restored.

ORCHESTRA COMES WRONG DAY

Through an error in the date given the Military Orchestra of this city, it was necessary to hold the charity ball at Tomahawk, last Wednesday evening, one day before the original date scheduled.

"The Military Orchestra of Rhinelander, which had been engaged to play for the ball," says the Tomahawk Leader, "arrived Wednesday morning and this was the first intimation the ladies had of the error made in the date for which the music had been secured. The orchestra was unable to stay until Thursday night owing to another engagement and the ladies decided to hold the ball Wednesday night."

Monarchs of England.

The first to rule over all England was Egbert, King of Wessex, who united all the various petty kingdoms and became King of England in 827. The greater kingdom was disrupted from 878 to 925, when the Danes ruled north of the Thames. In the latter year King Edgar reunited the kingdom and since that time it has never been partitioned. Between Edmund Ironside (1016) and Edward the Confessor (1042) three Danish kings ruled all England. Canute, Harold I. and Hardicanute. The first king of Great Britain was James I. (1603). The first king of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland was George III. From the conquest of Ireland in 1172 by Henry II, the kings of England were styled Lord of Ireland until the assumption of the title King of Ireland by Henry VIII, and thereafter this title was used until the act of union in 1801. The imperial sovereignty of India was assumed by Queen Victoria.

As She Saw the Notes.

When my daughter was 4 years old she sat gazing at the notes on a piece of music, when she suddenly looked up and said: "Mamma, here's a lot of little boys on a wire fence," and looking down at it, said, after a moment's thought, "and some of 'em got bits on."—Exchange.

ANOTHER HUGE DEER (STORY)

Dr. Dippy of Chicago, spent a few days at Tomahawk Lake and killed one of the largest deer ever brought down in this state. The carcass was so bulky that it resembled that of a moose and weighed 399 pounds. Of course, the editor of the New North didn't see this huge animal and he only accepts the facts as given him by the residents of Tomahawk Lake.

Dr. Dippy had as his guide W. R. Fuller, an old time hunter.

To the County Board of Supervisors of Oneida County, Wis.:

Gentlemen:—

Your committee on Illegal Taxes beg leave to report that they have examined the following bills referred to them and recommend that they be allowed, disallowed or disposed of as set forth in the schedule hereto annexed.

E. W. BEHLKE,
A. W. BROWN,
HENRY WUBKER, SR.,
J. O. BERNSTEIN,
ALEX MCGILLIS,
Com.

No. 1. Bill of H. J. Samways for illegal tax deed on SW SW 10-35-9, sale of 1899, in amount $3.32. We recommend that the bill be allowed and the amount charged to the town of Enterprise, for the reason that the certificate and deed has been cancelled by the County Board.

No. 2. Bill of Marshall E. Doolittle for illegal tax deed on Certificate No. 73, sale of 1905, in amount $4.21. We recommend that the bill be allowed for the reason that the certificate and deed have been cancelled by the County Board.

No. 3. Petition and claim of the Guaranteed Investment Co. to cancel tax certificate and deed issued on certificate No. 45, sale of 1906. We recommend that the petition be granted and the certificate and deed cancelled and claim allowed at $4.00, for the reason that taxes for that year were paid County Treasurer as appears by receipt No. 255.

No. 4. Bill of Kate Pier for illegal tax deed on Lot 2 of 4-34-4, for sale of 1899 and redemption for sale of 1897, in amount $15.05. We recommend that the claim be allowed and the amount charged to the town of Minocqua for the reason that the taxes for the sale of 1899 were paid to the Town Treasurer as appears by receipt No. 255, and for the further reason that said deed has been previously cancelled by order of the County Board.

No. 5. Bill of Guaranteed Investment Co. for illegal tax deed on certificate No. 93, sale of 1906, SW SW of 3-35-5, in amount $6.06. We recommend that the claim be allowed and the amount charged to the town of Little Rice for the reason that SW SW 3-35-5, is Lot 4 and taxes for that year were paid on Lot 4 and for the further reason that the certificate and deed have been cancelled by order of the County Board.

No. 6. Petition of Mrs. Polley to cancel certificate and deed on SW SW of 19-35-9, sale of 1907. We recommend that the petition be granted and certificate and deed cancelled for the reason that the taxes on said land for said year were paid as appears by town Treasurer's receipt, No. 137.

No. 7. Petition of Louis Larson for cancellation of certificates on Lot 9 of 36-37-8, sales of 1893, 1899, 1900, 1901 and 1902. We recommend that petition be granted and certificates cancelled for the reason that the land was never in the city of Rhinelander, but so appears because of a mistake of the Secretary of State in writing out the City charter, but in fact it was not in petition for organization or in the order submitted to the electors.

No. 8. Petition of Guaranteed Investment Co. for cancellation of tax certificates No. 93 and 105, sale of 1910. We recommend that petition be granted and certificates cancelled for the reason that the land described in said certificates were vacant at time of assessment.

No. 9. Petition of M. St. P. & S. Ste. M. R'y Co. for cancellation of tax certificates No. 126, sale of 1908 on Lot 6 of Block 1, Olson and Fry's Addition to Rhinelander, also certificates for sale of 1908, No. 124, sale of 1909, No. 235, sale of 1910, No. 193 and sale of 1911, No. 164 on Lot 5 of Block 1 Olson and Fry's Addition. We recommend that petition be granted and certificates cancelled for the reason that the land described in said certificates were railroad lands at time of assessment and not subject to taxation.

No. 10. Petition of Paul Browne and Mrs. A. W. Shelton for cancellation of tax certificates No. 227, sale of 1911 on Lots 4 and 5, Block 3, West Park Addition to City of Rhinelander. We recommend that petition be granted and certificates cancelled for the reason that the Lots were assessed together and were owned by different parties, one is improved and the other unimproved and it is impossible to apportion the tax on either lot so that each owner could pay his tax.

No. 11. Petition of County Clerk for cancellation of tax certificates No. 75 and 76, sale of 1908. We recommend that petition be granted and certificates for the reason that the land described in said certificates were vacant at time of assessment.

COASTING IS POPULAR

Coasting is a popular diversion among the little folks of the city and every available hill is occupied these evenings by bob parties. The children are not alone in enjoying the sport as frequently their elders, especially young ladies, are seen gliding down the Soo viaduct with a sleigh full of small boys. It is almost impossible for some grown-ups to get over their "kid" ways.

ELK'S PARTY

At the Elk's club rooms Friday evening, Rhinelander Lodge 359 will entertain their friends at a dancing party for which invitations have been issued.

"The Old Folks At Home" club met Tuesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Vaughan. Prizes at cards were awarded to Mrs. O. Leonard, Mrs. J. J. Dunn and Mrs. W. Reed.

EVERYONE'S DUTY TO BUY SEALS

Public Can Help In Checking Spread Of The Great
White Plague

Have you helped in the campaign against tuberculosis by buying any Christmas seals? If you haven't don't waste another minute before you order some. Place your order with any of the school children from the 5th grade up or 'phone No. 34.

Don't let Rhinelander stand as near the foot as it did last year in the sale of seals. Kenosha, a city about three times as large as Rhinelander, has ordered six times as many seals.

It is every one's duty to help stamp out tuberculosis and the only way we have of helping is to buy the Christmas seals. In providing for the control of the disease the lives of all are being protected. People cannot police their own door yards nor prevent the consumptives of their neighborhood from depositing millions of germs around them without a broad scope organization such as the Anti-Tuberculosis Association. By buying the seals you help to protect the public against calls for charity to support families of workmen, who die having spent their earnings in a personal fight against the disease. Buy your seals now!

ANNUAL REPORT OF SUPT. LOWELL

Submitted To The Oneida County
Board At The Meeting
This Week

To the Honorable Board of Supervisors of Oneida County:

Gentlemen:—
According to law it is my duty to make a report before your honorable body at this time setting forth the progress of the schools of the county during the past year and suggesting such changes as seem advisable for their benefit.

The number of children of school age in the county for the year closing June 30, 1911 is 1921 as compared with 1923 in the year closing June 30, 1910 as shown by the reports of the school officers. The school registry in 1911 was 1477 and in 1910, 1447 or an increase of 30, but the average daily attendance for the year closing June 30, 1911, was about 1055.8 as compared with 916.5 in 1910, an increase of 132 each school day which shows plainly what may be accomplished by looking after the truancy laws more carefully.

Still there is plenty of chance for betterment yet and we hope to improve conditions much this year.

The county superintendent visited all the schools once as requested by law except a single four months school thirty-five miles by road from Hazelhurst, many schools a second time and others a third time making 110 visits in all.

In many instances the teachers were doing excellent work but in some cases it seemed as though the teacher was there simply to draw her salary. In a few cases teachers were doing excellent work the first visit and poor work at the close of the year which is to be regretted. If a teacher is capable of doing good work she should do it all the year around. In too many cases school officers showed no interest in the school and gave the teachers little to do with. In one town where the most was paid for service of school officers and, we must say, a large part in violation of the law, the most neglect was shown by the officers.

In this same town the library books sent the secretary the early part of the school year were not distributed until late in the year and the children lost the inspiration a well selected library gives. In some towns, the school officers and the entire community showed a willingness to do everything in their power to assist the teachers in making first-class schools. While we see many good things in the township system, there are many defects and perhaps it is well that it is to pass out of existence in its present form.

The last legislature passed a law abolishing the system. Ch. 388 of Laws of 1911.

In the future of the law an act to repeal sections 516 to 523 inclusive which abolishes the present township system and substitutes a new section 516. It does not seem advisable to give the law in full in this paper but the chairmen have done with the provisions of this law and should know its content. State Superintendent Cary says of this change
"I know of no reason why it may not go into operation quietly and work out smoothly. This law does not confine a district to any territory but there must be at least 15 children of school age in any independent district."

I attribute much of the improved teaching to the Oneida County Training School which has made such rapid strides in one short year.

The work of its teachers is felt all over the county and I fully believe the time is not far distant when nearly every high school graduate who wishes to teach in the rural schools will seek entrance to this institution as a means of preparing her for the work. Already the legislature has made concessions to the training schools by making it possible for high school graduates who spend a year in the training school and complete the course a five year certificate without further examination, and such graduates are also allowed one half year normal credit. So long as high school graduates must be to the expense of a six weeks professional course at a state normal before beginning teaching, would it not be as well for these people to attend the training school the year and obtain this get the five year certificate and the half year credit at the normal?

The report of the training school follows:

Supt. F. A. Lowell,
Secretary Training School Board,
Rhineland, Wis.

Dear Sir:—
I have the honor of submitting the report of the Oneida County Teachers' Training School for the year from Nov. 1, 1910, to Nov. 1, 1911.

At the time of last year's report the school had been in session two months and the enrollment was 11.
Our present enrollment is 33, with an average daily attendance of 29, and the outlook is fair that it will reach 45 by the end of the year.

The assembly room has been remodeled; new bookcases have been bought; the library has been increased considerably by gift and by purchase and some new apparatus has been added.

The faculty has taken an active part in their teachers' institutes and in one school board convention, and it has been of direct service to many teachers who are in active work of teaching. School board members are coming for advice. Many seed and milk tests were made during the year and many questions were answered. In general, the school is becoming more useful all the time.

Recent action of the County Board has enabled this school to make arrangements for the organization of an agricultural department in cooperation with the State University. This will bring the school into still closer relationship with the county.

State Supt. C. P. Cary inspected the school about a month ago and expressed himself as well pleased with both progress and prospects.

One result of the inspection was that we were granted the full allowance of $2500.00.

I wish to thank the County Board and the Board of this school for their hearty cooperation.

Respectfully submitted,
B. MACK DRESDEN,
Principal.

At a meeting of the training school board Oct. 20, all the members present, the following resolution was unanimously passed that the county board be asked to raise two thousand dollars ($2000.00) to support the training school the coming school year.

I wish to thank the county board for its past splendid attitude towards this only county institution of learning and hope the same spirit may be continued in the future, for out of this institution we expect much good to come to Oneida County.

It would not be just to end this report without commenting favorably on the swift action and hearty support given by the county board to another wing of education, and that is agriculture. Two years ago when the teachers' training school was established we hardly hoped to see this institution play so prominent a

Stickney Gasoline Engines ARE THE BEST

Economy—
We Can Help You

You know that you should have a Stickney Engine but do you know what size will do your work most economically, both in cost of fuel and in the expenditure of your time as an engine too small to do the work is not true economy. It is not economy to overload your engine nor to run it at too high a speed. Again the right size of an engine will not give proper results unless the pulley sizes are right and the hookup is correct. This is where we can help you before you buy as well as look after you when you have bought.

Once more let us offer our help and show you the Stickney Engine—its outside igniter, its perfect cooling system, its automatic mixer, its ball bearing governor and its three point suspension.

FLASHES FROM THE HEADLIGHT

Bits of News Pertaining To The Soo and Northwestern Railroads

A caboose was hurled twenty feet in the air and hung in a tree when it was struck by a log train on the Northwestern road near Wausaukee, Saturday. The train ran down a steep grade and the engine was derailed in the collision. Conductor Porter and Louis Edibeck, brakeman, were seriously hurt.

The railroad rate commission has notified the railroad companies of the state to enforce the state law against card playing on trains. This is causing a howl from the traveling men, who were relieved of many monotonous hours of travel by a friendly game of "smear."

The sleepers of the Chicago & Northwestern passenger trains are lighted by electricity, at the same time introducing an innovation in that the same is generated from the axles of the cars.

The Soo railway company has settled out of court the case of Lawrence Harling, the brakeman, who was injured in a wreck near Superior last July. The terms of the settlement, which is said to be the largest ever made by the Soo line, are the payment of $12,500 in cash to Mr. Harling, the payment of all debts he contracted on account of the accident, and the expense of his trip to California and his residence there until he has completely recovered from his injuries.

During the past few weeks there has been every indication of a change in the attitude of the railroad companies throughout the country. For many months past the railroad companies have been withholding orders for further equipment or betterment, keeping the expenditures in this direction down at their lowest possible consistent point, still keeping their repairs in decent state of maintenance. Operating expense have also been cut down, in every possible direction, but the higher wages, the high cost of material, and the reduction in the possible earnings because of the interstate commerce rulings, are all reasons for the conservation on their part. It is noticeable at this time that the railroads have been placing orders for rails, lumber and other equipment in larger numbers and this is considered as one of the most healthy symptoms of the times.—Mississippi Lumberman.

IT'S YOUR KIDNEYS

Don't Mistake the Cause of Your Troubles

Many people never suspect their kidneys. If suffering from a lame, weak or aching back they think that it is only a muscular weakness; when urinary trouble sets in they think it will soon correct itself. And so it is with all the other symptoms of kidney disorders. That is just where the danger lies. You must cure these troubles or they may lead to dropsy or Bright's disease. The best endorsed remedy for weak or diseased kidneys is Doan's Kidney Pills. Residents of this vicinity are constantly testifying.

Mrs. A. Denoyer, Box No. 83, Hackley, Wis., says: "A member of my family was troubled by weak kidneys for ten years. He was sometimes laid up for days and could not find a remedy that would give him relief. Finally I had the good fortune to learn of Doan's Kidney Pills and I procured a supply. They greatly relieved him and toned up his general health."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

DON'T SAY YOU'RE OLD

You Only Feel Old

Digestive organs are weak—don't assimilate food as they used to. Other organs act more slowly and less effectually. Blood is thin and sluggish. Renewal of strength does not equal the wear and tear of your system. That's what makes you feel old. Nothing in the world will tone up and invigorate those weak, back-sliding organs, make rich blood and create strength so quickly as Vinol. Vinol is not a secret nostrum, simply the medicinal elements of the cod's livers, with the useless nauseating oil eliminated, and tonic iron added. Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not make you stronger, feel younger and give you an added interest in life.

CALLS HIGHWAY LAW FRAUD

County Board Denounces New Wisconsin Statute

La Crosse, Wis., Nov. 27.—Declaring the new state highway law a fraud upon the people, designed only in the interests of automobile owners and pleasure-seekers, the Monroe county board today attacked the new statute, which was expected to transform the roads of Wisconsin.

Similar attacks on the law were made at the sessions of the LaCrosse, Trempealeau and Vernon county boards last week.

Under the law the state pays one-third of the cost of improving country roads. The town and county each pays a third, but the state collects its proportion by levying a tax upon the county for exactly the same amount that it pays back. Thus each county really furnishes its own state aid. This is the feature which has aroused much supervisors against the new law.—Wausau Record-Herald, Nov. 28.

MCGEORGE BUNDY DEAD

Prominent Lumberman Passes Away At Antwerp, Belgium

E. N. Morrill, of the Bundy Lumber company, has returned from Grand Rapids, Mich., where he attended the funeral of the late McGeorge Bundy, president of the company bearing his name.

Mr. Bundy's death occurred on November 7th at Antwerp, Belgium, where he had been for some time receiving expert medical treatment. He was fifty-six years of age and leaves a widow and three sons.

Mr. Bundy was a prominent lumberman and capitalist of Michigan. When the Bundy Lumber company operated its mill at Bundy he visited that village on several occasions and in Rhinelander had a slight acquaintance.

Curing Forgetfulness.
I used to be very forgetful, and could not remember half the time where I had put things around the house. says a writer in Harper's Bazar. Finally I hit on this scheme.

I live in the upper flat of a two-family house, and there are just eight rooms in our flat. I got a big white sheet of paper, and wrote on it the names of the eight rooms, and beside the name of each room I wrote the name of a certain place in that room. I decided that every time I put anything out of my hands for a minute I would put it in the place beside the name of that room on the paper.

The paper I tacked up in a conspicuous place in my own room. By using this system I always knew just where to look for things, and after a little while I got so in the habit of putting things in certain places and of remembering where I put them that I no longer needed the paper.

Swiss English.

Swiss English always seems designed to round off the scenery with the touch of humor. For years the best in the writer's collection has been an inscription by a path leading to a waterfall near Meiringen, which explained that a toll was necessary for "the foundation and untainting" of that path. Until last month, however, there was nothing quite equal to the Strasburg cathedral notice: "Express interdiction to circulate during divine service. Beadle have to preserve order." But Switzerland has at least tied with Germany now in the collection. In a certain Oberland valley, too unspoiled yet to be given away by name, there is a series of gates which bear a short request in Oberland German to the wayfarer to close them. And twice it is translated into English "Shut up!"—London Chronicle.

How Perfume Is Weighed.

It was the Italian physician Salvioni who devised a microbalance of such extreme delicacy that it clearly demonstrated the loss of weight of musk by volatilization. Thus the invisible perfume floating off in the air is indirectly weighed.

The essential part of the apparatus is a very thin thread of glass, fixed at one end and extended horizontally. The microscopic objects to be weighed are placed upon the glass thread near its free end and the amount of flexure produced is observed with a microscope magnifying 100 diameters.

A note weighing one thousandth of a milligram is said perceptibly to bend the thread.—Buffalo Courier.

Paper Drinking Cups.

In the schools of Austria the children are taught to carry several sheets of writing paper in their pockets at all times. Then, when a child is thirsty, he can roll one of the sheets into a cone and make a perfectly serviceable cup which may be placed, after being used, in the nearest waste paper box. How to roll the cones deftly is taught the children. The tearing of a notch about half an inch long near one end and before rolling the cone serves to make the improved cup stronger.

Motoring at Its Best.

Few motorists know of motoring in all its fullness. They drive along country roads for a hundred miles or so, through towns so closely set that they virtually run through one long village, and they think they have motored. They cross the ocean and enjoy the perfect roads of France and Switzerland, and imagine they have experienced all there is in life in the motor car; but no one has ever been brought to a full realization of what motoring really is, or what the wonderful modern machine of man's creative genius is really capable of doing until they have sat in a racing car side by side with an expert driver and tasted the sport as it is under such conditions. Lord Byron once wrote: "What a delightful thing is a turnpike road, such a means of speeding the earth as scarce the eagle in the broad air can accomplish." He certainly spoke in prophecy of the motor car, and especially of the racing machine, which defies distance and shrinks space into the most tiny proportions.—The Columbian.

Bee's Sting.

The most practical and altogether effectual remedy for bee stings is to put ammonia on them immediately; this is a simple remedy, but the application of ammonia will give instant relief and prevent swelling.

Good in Skyscrapers.

"These skyscrapers are a great convenience," said the man who is engaged in business. "In what way?" "When your doctor orders you to a higher altitude, all you have to do is to take the elevator."

Ideals are like stars; you will not succeed in touching them with your hands; but like the seafaring man on the desert of waters, you chase them as your guides, and, following them, you reach your destiny.—Carl Schurz.

OLD FASHIONED FAMILY PEW

In That Rested the Strength of the Church, and It Should Be Restored.

One sometimes hears a deal of nonsense about the danger of creating a prejudice against religion in the mind of a child by making him attend church once a week. The danger would seem to be about one-tenth as great as that of arousing a prejudice against education by sending him to school twice a day. In both cases the remedy lies in the good sense of the parents and their estimate of the value of religion and education carefully instilled into the child's mind.

The strength of the church has been in the old-fashioned pew, with father at one end and mother at the other, and a stairway of more or less restless children. From that pew have gone out the upright, devout, consecrated men and women who have loved the church and maintained her worship and done her work in their several generations. For the sake of the church, and especially for the sake of the children, let it be restored.

If it be impossible for the children to attend both Sunday school and the church service, this writer would by all means teach them the catechism at home and bring them to church that they may learn to worship God in the congregation of his people.—Southern Churchman.

$25 Kitchen Cabinet

That is what we are going to give for the best loaf of bread baked from

ARDEE FLOUR

We have secured the exclusive agency for this northern brand of flour and by actual experience can guarantee it to be the highest grade of flour on the market. Nothing but Dakota and Minnesota hard spring wheat is used in the manufacture of ARDEE FLOUR but even with such wheat, the finest that can be had, much depends on how the miller grinds it. The patent grade, like cream, depends on how much of the lower grade is skimmed off; the more skim milk, the richer the cream. ARDEE flour is the richest of the flour portion of the wheat, twice as much of the lower grade being taken out as in ordinary flours. Ardee is a very dry, thirsty flour, which demonstrates quality, it absorbs more moisture, makes more loaves from a sack and costs less per loaf. Bread made from Ardee flour is delicious, very light, creamy, white loaves that keep moist and fresh many days, bread that will delight the family and of which any housewife may be proud. And to make it an inducement for everybody to try a sack of this flour, we will hold a

Bread Baking Contest

Friday, December 22d, 1911

AT WHICH TIME WE WILL GIVE FOR

1st Prize: Kitchen Cabinet. 2d Prize: Two Sacks Ardee Flour.
3rd. Prize: One Sack Ardee Flour.

Contest will be conducted in a fair, square manner. Every loaf of bread will be numbered so that it will be judged on its own merits regardless of the contestants. We will have an expert from the Hubbard Mill to test all bread entered in this contest by a scientific method.

Important Rules of the Contest.—One loaf of bread is required from Ardee flour, and only one from each family. Bread must be baked the day before the contest and delivered at The Armory by one o'clock, Friday, December 22nd, 1911. Professional bakers are not allowed to enter this contest. Bread can be baked in any size tin to enter this contest.

Wanted every housewife in Rhinelander and the surrounding country to take part in this bread baking contest, which will be of benefit to every progressive house keeper. An expert judge and lecturer on the art of bread making will be here on Friday, December 22nd, from the Ardee flour home mill, remember the time, a complete bread making demonstration will be demonstrated to all present, nothing of this kind so far has been given here in Rhinelander and every lady that takes personal interest in good bread making or how to make good bread better is cordially invited to take personal interest and attend this lecture in order to make this a success.

And as bread is used in our daily fare more than any one article of food it is interesting to learn the lesson how bread has earned its true title the "staff of life". Let your next sack of flour be Ardee, try it. And if not, you are welcome just the same to attend our lecture and judging of the bread which takes place at the Armory on Friday, Dec. 22, at 2 o'clock. Remember the time and the place and the phone call 156 for Ardee flour.
